PRIMARY PLAN KNOCKED OUT BY LEADERS

Republicans Pick Chicago as National Convention City.

OPENING DATE IS JUNE 18

Arthur I. Vorys Explains Why Presidential Preference Proposition Is Not Feasible In Ohio — Brown Issues Another Statement—John F. Hill of Maine Succeeds Hitchcock as Campaign Manager—Indianian Knocks Taft and Is Called by New.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Chicago had very little opposition in the race for the 1912 national convention of the Republican party and won hands down. June 18 was selected as the opening date by the Republican national committee, which had hardly decided these questions and concluded other business with a fair show of harmony, when E. L. Lee, chairman of the Republican state committee of Indiana, and ex-Senator Beveridge's lieutenant, issued this formal statement:

"Mr. Taft can not carry Indiana. If he is the Republican nominee, our fight is lost before a gun is fired. As one of his original friends who labored for him night and day, I have been driven to this knowledge with extreme reluctance. There is not the slightest chance to carry Indiana for Mr. Taft."

So far as Mr. Lee himself is concerned, this statement is not received with any great degree of seriousness in Washington. The contention that Mr. Lee has a private ax to grind.

New Takes Other View

Harry New, national Republican committeeman from Indiana, said when he heard of the Lee statement: "I knew several days ago that Lee was coming to Washington to make this statement. I told the president that he was going to make the statement. I could, without much trouble, tell what is behind the statement and also fix the date on which he experienced a change of sentiment. I disagree absolutely with his propositions in regard to President Taft's renomination. I believe President Taft is the strongest man the party can nominate, and I do not believe the Republicans of Indiana will be affected by Mr. Lee's pessimistic view."

On the heels of the Lee statement came another formal statement from Walter Brown, chairman of the Ohio Republican state committee. Mr. Brown declared a few days ago that Roosevelt was the choice of the Ohio Republicans and he had been urging several days that the Republican national committee provide a way for the holding of a Republican primary for the selection of Ohio's delegates-at-large to the national convention. It was the failure of the national committee to meet his wishes in this respect that led Mr. Brown to issue another statement. This intimates that the failure of the committee in this respect will result in a more determined fight in Ohio.

Brown's Latest Statement.

"Ohio Republicans who are interested chiefly in party success at the election—who are more concerned about nominations than about the nomination of the national committee—have seen fit to deny to state committee the opportunity to provide for the selection of delegates-at-large primary. Undoubtedly 42 out of 48 national delegates will be elected at district primaries under the law of Ohio, as it now stands. If six delegates-at-large could also be elected by direct vote, and I believe that a method of so doing, properly safeguarded, could be worked out, the state convention to nominate a state ticket could be held prior to the national convention, and in the event the presidential issue should be eliminated from the deliberations of the state convention, with some advantage to party nominees upon the state ticket."

There is talk among anti-Taft Republicans from Ohio of attempting to secure some presidential preference

AMERICAN LEAGUE DECLARES ITSELF

Takes No Chances on Future
Ticket Scandals.

New York, Dec. 13.—American league baseball club owners before adjourning the annual fall meeting at the hotel Astor, adopted resolutions offered by Frank J. Farrell of the New York club, that may lead to a war with the National league. The resolution, which was prompted by the world's series ticket scandal, reads this way:

"Resolved, That the American league will continue to exercise its privileges and observe its obligations under the national agreement, but will decline to have further official intercourse with the National league except so far as may be requisite for the safeguarding of its territorial and player rights."

"Be it further resolved, That the American league will not be represented in another series for the championship of the world or in any other interleague event unless accorded sole charge of the sale of tickets to games played on its own grounds under an arrangement and with the understanding that it shall not assume responsibility for the conduct of the business department of games at the park of the other contesting club."

Cleveland was represented by C. W. Somers. A resolution praising the Athletic club for its victory in the world's series was passed, and the veteran umpire, Jack Sheridan, received a gold medal and was placed on the pension list at $1,200 a year. The league then passed the "war resolution" and adjourned until February.

The Cincinnati club has signed the veteran National league umpire, Hank O'Day, to manage the Reds next year. O'Day has been an umpire for nearly 20 years. He was one of the Giants' pitchers when they won the world's championship in 1893. His selection, which was announced by Harry Herrmann, was a big surprise. O'Day was at the Waldorf and received many congratulations.

READ IN TODAY'S ISSUE.

President Taft and his supporters were completely successful in the organization of the National Committee and primary plan is given a quietus.

Lawn Checkers, a Game For The Benefit of the Spectators

CHECKER enthusiasts will have an opportunity to watch their favorite game played in a novel style when "lawn checkers" will be demonstrated at a public tournament in New York. The game is played on a large canvas, twenty-four feet square, which is stretched upon turf or the floor of a large hall. Square holes are cut in the canvas in such a manner as to give the usual checkerboard effect on a grand scale. The pieces, which are made of papier mache, are correspondingly large and are moved by means of poles with hooks at one end. The advantage of the new game, according to its inventor, is that a match may be watched by a large crowd of spectators instead of by the dozen or so who can observe the moves of the players who use an ordinary board. The new method may be and is adapted to the use of chess players as well.

Newark, O., Dec. 13.—Apprehension that another riot, such as the one in which Detective Etherington was lynched, might occur, followed disturbances attendant on attempts to raid three places where it was suspected liquor was sold. Police were able to handle the situation, however, and order was quickly restored.

To add to the confusion an excited man, who feared a serious outbreak, telephoned to Governor Harmon that a serious riot was imminent and implored the governor to send troops. The trouble grew out of the serving of warrants for the alleged sale of intoxicants. Search and seizure warrants were sworn to before Mayor Geiger of Ebersville, at the instance of George Gardner of this city. The places under suspicion were those of Charles Henry, Schaefer and received many congratulations.

KING TAKES A NEW OATH

George V of England Becomes Emperor of India.

Delhi, India, Dec. 13.—Before a quarter of a million people and amid scenes of grandeur that surpassed anything in modern history, King George V. and his consort, Queen Mary, were formally proclaimed emperor and empress of India.

The crowning was followed by an act of generosity on the king-emperor's part, of which a slight hint had already been given. The viceroy proclaimed that the king-emperor was to donate a large sum of money to promote popular education and that further handsome gifts would be made.

Thousands of soldiers and government secret service men guarded every approach to the royal encampment, while a hundred thousand of the king's native and English troops surrounded the tents of King George and his suite to guard against a repetition of the mysterious fires that have broken out from time to time in the Durbar encampment.

Delhi Capital of India.

Delhi, India, Dec. 13.—Delhi, seat of the ancient Mogul dynasty, is the new capital of India. So pleased was King George with the reception that he received here during the magnificent Durbar that he announced that the Indian capital would be removed here from Calcutta. News of the change in capital was hailed with great joy here.

Jack Johnson to Retire.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, weighs nearly 300 pounds and will never again enter the ring in a contest to retain his title, according to information received at his home here.

FITZGERALD IS MUCH PUT OUT

New York Democrat Takes Colleagues to Task For Tacking $75,000,000 Appropriation to Uncle Sam's Already Heavy Burdens and Says All Hope of Keeping Economy Pledge Has Vanished—Eight Republicans Cast Negative Votes.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The house passed the Sherwood dollar-a-day pension bill, which will add about $75,000,000 a year to the expenditures of the government, the final vote being 229 to 92, eight of those registered in the negative being Republicans. Speaker Clark voted for the bill; Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee and Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee against it.

The feature of the closing debate on the measure was Mr. Fitzgerald's speech arraigning his colleagues for their favorable attitude toward the bill, and declaring that with its passage went their last hope of effecting reforms and economies in appropriations for which they have gone on record.

The Republicans who voted against the Sherwood bill were Gardner, Miller and McCall of Massachusetts, Hill of Connecticut, Kent of California, McCreary of Pennsylvania, Payne of New York and Utter of Rhode Island.

The rates in the Sherwood bill are as follows: For service of 90 days up to six months, $15 a month; from six months to nine months, $20 a month; nine months to a year, $25 a month; for one year or more, $30 a month.

WANDER IN MINE WITH REASON GONE RESCUERS' BELIEF

Rescuers Believe Two of Entombed Men Have Lost Reason.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 13.—The sum total of bodies removed from Cross mountain mine is 32, not counting the five men removed alive. The day was practically without results so far as the finding of more bodies was concerned, but members of the rescuing party are confident that there are two miners with reasons dethroned wandering about the dark passageways of the wrecked mine. Several times their maniacal screams have been heard, and they seemed to flee from the rescuing party. The two men are believed to be John Duff and John Smith, who became separated from William Henderson's party sometime Sunday.

Guard Charles Jackson Proves Equal to Occasion

And Frustrate Attempted Escape From the Penitentiary. Recognized as an Alert Guard He Sustains His Reputation in an Emergency.

Just one minute intervened to head off plans of three prisoners who attempted to make their escape from the Ohio penitentiary during the change of guards at 5:25 Tuesday afternoon and caused their defeat at the hands of Guard Charles Jackson of this city, who, upon their refusal to comply with his order to halt, discharged his revolver.

Two of the men, who are employed in the dining room, which is near the east wall, succeeded in making their way back to the building before their identity was established. The third, Harry Kessler, serving 20 years from Trumbull county for safe blowing, ran into the arms of Guard Ringle, who was just going to the relief of Jackson.

The men managed to make their way from the dining room without the guards on duty noticing their disappearance, as it is difficult to keep all of the men employed in the hall under close observation. A mistake in their calculation of time brought the men to the wall just one minute before the change of guards was made. But for their haste, their escape might have been effected.

Jackson, who was awaiting the appearance of Ringle, noticed the three men skulking along in the shadow of the wall. Unheeding his cries to halt, the men broke into a run and dashed for the north end.

The fusillade of shots from Jackson's revolver brought the escaping men to a halt. Turning, they ran back in the direction of the dining room with the intention of losing themselves among the many men at work there.

Two succeeded, but Kessler fell into the arms of Ringle just as the latter came around the corner of the building. A search is being conducted for a rope ladder which the men are supposed to have hidden near the wall. Kessler is serving his fifth sentence at the penitentiary and is considered dangerous.

Charles Jackson has been recognized as one of the most capable and alert guards at the big prison and Tuesday evening's emergency proved that his excellent reputation for efficiency is wholly justified.

Want "Little Bristle" To Be in the Front Row

President F. W. Herbst, of Columbus Chamber of Commerce Here Boosting Ohio Centennial—Wants Float From Fayette.

Mr. F. W. Herbst, president of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, was in this city Wednesday calling upon many prominent men and county and city officials in the interests of the Ohio-Columbus Centennial celebration which will be held ten days, beginning August 26, 1912, in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of Ohio's capital in Columbus.

It is the desire of the Chamber of Commerce that every county be represented in an appropriate manner, and it is for this reason that he visits Fayette county. A large meeting of business men will probably be held within a short time and Mr. Herbst will make an address on the coming centennial.

The commissioners appointed by Governor Harmon to represent Fayette county at the centennial, are Messrs. John M. Jones, of Bloomingburg, and County Commissioner Edwin Weaver. Two women from the county will have charge of the historical loan exhibit from this county.

The main object of Mr. Herbst's visit was to arouse an interest in the centennial among the people of Fayette county, in view of raising a fund sufficient to pay for a float to represent this county in the historic pageant which will be one of the chief features of the celebration. This pageant will be composed of electric floats built on the street cars, typifying the various incidents in the history of the state and different counties. The pageant will be called "The Story of the State," and it is expected that it will be the most magnificent affair ever attempted in the country.

Not only Ohio, but all the central states will be interested in the celebration. President Taft has already accepted an invitation to be present and Governor Harmon has formally endorsed the project.

All of the eighty-eight counties in the state will be invited to take part in the celebration. Already about twenty of them have, through their centennial organizations, signified their intention of doing so.

The amount to be raised is about $500, which will be used in properly representing the county in the big centennial.

TO THE PUBLIC.

If cough syrups would cure coughs every time, it would not be necessary for us to print this information, but there are so many cases of chronic bronchitis in town that have hung on for months and years, we feel that we must tell what we know about it.

It is a positive fact that the only right way to treat a cough is to use a remedy that acts on the blood, such as Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil.

This makes the blood rich and pure so it can heal and strengthen the inflamed bronchial tubes. Its taste is so pleasant that even children like it.

Mrs. Olivia Parham, East Durham, N. C. says "I used Vinol for a cough which had lasted two years and it gave me perfect satisfaction. I am also giving it to a delicate child to strengthen her. She will not take any other medicine, but Vinol is so pleasant she cries for it and it is benefitting her very much."

Remember if Vinol does not help you it costs you nothing. Blackmer & Tanquary

Waives Examination Bond Is Given

YOUNG FULTON CHARGED WITH CUTTING WITH INTENT TO KILL; MUST ANSWER TO COURT

Charles Fulton, the young farmer of near Waterloo, against whom Napoleon B. Fulton filed an affidavit, charging that he assaulted him with a corn knife and cut him with intent to kill, was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Constable Oatneal and a deputy.

Fulton was at his home when arrested, and offered no resistance. He notified his father, Benton Fulton who accompanied him to this city for the preliminary hearing. The men secured Attorney Humphrey Jones as their legal adviser, and through him Fulton waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury under $1000 bond, upon the charge of cutting with intent to kill.

The bond was furnished by the young man's father, who owns a farm in the Waterloo neighborhood, and who is a brother of the man who was cut. Owing to the seriousness of N. B. Fulton's injuries, blood poisoning is liable to develop.

Chas. Fulton, when asked the nature of the trouble between himself and his uncle, stated that he had forbidden his uncle to set foot in his yard, and that when he disregarded the warning, he put him out. Before he could make a further statement his father hastily summoned him away.

The trouble seems to have been over a step-daughter of N. B. Fulton, who was at the Chas. Fulton residence. If the case gets into the courts some interesting features will probably develop.

GOING TO TRY IT.

Out in the "new" northwest country they are certainly in for trying every sort of an experiment, especially those which have to do with municipal affairs. Everything is tried for which it is promised or which promises in itself a possibility of better conditions.

Now they are going to give the municipal saloon scheme a thorough work out so as to test by actual experience its limit of capacity for good or evil and set at rest the mooted question as to whether it is better than the private saloon, and if so, can the municipality without too great a loss, engage in the saloon business.

In this section which is "back east" to the residents of that big country, while we are not inclined to look favorably upon the enterprise, we will look with interest for the outcome of the test.

Ministers of nearly every denomination have assured the mayor and the council of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, of their support in a plan to establish a municipal saloon in that city, instead of issuing individual licenses. Many residents of the city also are in favor of giving the innovation a full trial.

Some of the citizens object to the municipal saloon on the ground that it "would put the saloon in politics." In the opinion of the others, exactly the reverse is true. It is claimed that the many who have had experience and have noted the political activity of the liquor interests on all matters which they consider would even remotely affect their interest, are willing to concede the truth of the reverse.

Nominally, the public officials are supposed to regulate the liquor traffic, but in reality are often regulated by it is the claim. Other objections are that the city would lose money because of grafting politicians and dishonest employees. There is no doubt that some loss would occur through these agencies, even as it occurs in private business, but it is argued that a systematic check and balance system could be instituted and surety bonds required of all who handle money. The working out of the system is purely a matter of detail.

There is nothing in the constitution or statutes of Idaho that forbids a city engaging in a mercantile business; yet there is no law specifically authorizing a city so to engage, so in all probability, should the city of Coeur d'Alene go ahead with the proposed municipal saloon whether it would be permitted to proceed is a matter for the courts of the state to decide.

End of Trusts Will Come

Obey Sherman Law Closer

By JOHN WANAMAKER, Merchant

NOW, WITH A LITTLE PATIENCE, ALL THE GREAT TRUSTS WILL CONFORM TO LAWS ON THE STATUTE BOOK AS UNDERSTOOD AND INTERPRETED BY THE HIGHEST TRIBUNAL OF THE UNITED STATES.

I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT MR. MORGAN, MR. FRICK OR MR. GARY WILL CARE TO DEFEND ANY ORGANIZATION WHICH BY INADVERTENCE EXPRESSES IN ITS ORGANIZATION ANYTHING CONTRARY TO HIS LIFELONG CHARACTER OF UPRIGHTNESS.

The Sherman act against trusts came along because trusts existed and were multiplying.

Our busy, unsuspecting people were not aware of the power and hardships possible to monopolistic corporations, and the continual advance in the cost of living, raiment and all building improvements AWAKENED THE PEOPLE.

A day had come when the people all over the United States would get behind their senators and representatives, judges, writers and the newspaper world generally and demand relief. That day had to come or anarchy would have been produced.

THAT DAY OF RELIEF HAS ARRIVED.

It is written, "AS A MAN THINKETH, SO IS HE," and so are his companies and businesses. I am sure the day is at hand when any man or set of men doing business contrary to existing statutes, when such is proved to them without animosity or unnecessary haste or heedless expenses, will set their houses in proper order. For this reason I believe we are on the eve of a BETTER, SAFER, STEADIER, PROSPEROUS BUSINESS DECADE.

AMERICA CAN SQUARE ITSELF TO WAR WHEN IT HAS TO BE AND YET MORE EASILY TO PERMANENT PEACE. SO IT CAN AND WILL SQUARE ITSELF IN THE REGULATION OF TARIFFS, TRUSTS AND STOCK MARKETS.

Poetry—Today

"THE ISLE OF PALMS"

He tipped the barber for his shave,
He tipped the bootblack, too;
He tipped the dairy girl at lunch
To what she thought her due;
He tipped the hallboy at the flat
To keep the lad's esteem.
And then he tipped the janitor
To turn on some more steam.

He tipped the taxi driver when
He took her to a show;
Then waiters, hat boy and the like
Took slices of his dough;
The waiter tipped the oyster man,
The carver, too, got his;
The omnibus man received a dime
For tending to his biz.

The oyster man tipped well the chef
Who put him on the job;
Head waiter got tips from his staff
For privilege to rob.
And so it goes along the line,
For it is up to date
Here on the "Isle of Palms" to tip
From morn till evening late.

"BEST ON EARTH"

This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracey, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure." Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops coughs and cures colds. Do not accept any substitute. Blackmer & Tanquary.

Bloomington

Thomas Yore was a visitor in Columbus Sunday.

Miss Jessie Leavell is spending the week with friends in Gordonsville, W. Va.

Mrs. W. Q. Kinkead, Mrs. Stewart and Master Fullerton Kinkead are spending the week as guests of relatives in Rutland, Ohio.

Carl Hyer, who is attending Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, spent Saturday the guest of his father, Dr. F. E. Hyer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leavell are visitors in Circleville this week.

The Bloomington Basket Ball club will give their annual dance at Taylor's Hall on Thursday, December 21st. This will be one of the big events of the winter in this locality and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Grim of South Solon, spent Monday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Klever.

J. M. Klever returned Saturday after spending the week in Chicago.

The Bloomington Basketball team will play one of the important games of the season next Saturday night when they tackle the Crescents of Ashville. The Crescents are undoubtedly the fastest basket ball team in central Ohio, and are making a strong bid for the state championship. The Bloomington boys are working hard in practice, and are not going to take any chances with the visitors as they have not been defeated this season, and it looks like championship of central Ohio for them.

CLUB NEWS

The Browning club women were indebted to the Department of Household Economics, Mrs. Reba Bey, chairman, for a most instructive program Tuesday evening.

"Scotland" being the country for the evening's study, Mrs. John A. Worrell presented a delightful paper on "Rural Life and Fisheries" of that country.

A fine paper by Dr. Lucy Pine, "Foods and Diatetics", treated of different foods and their values, organic, inorganic and nitrogenous foods. Dr. Pine said that there is a tendency to eat too much meat and not enough vegetable matter.

"Cheating the Market Basket" was the subject of a paper, in which Miss Edith Hamm gave insight into the short weights and measure movement, the crusade launched in New York and spreading widely—the finding of baskets and measures with false bottoms and false stuffings has led to investigations which are giving the consumer fair measure. A state law in Ohio now regulates the weights.

Two piano solos, beautifully played by Miss Mabel Calvert, one of Washington's talented young artists, added much to the evening's pleasure. There was a good attendance considering the rainy night.

Suspects Caught Had No Jewelry

Two men, believed to be the ones who robbed the L. M. Butch jewelry store in Circleville Monday night, were arrested in Chillicothe Tuesday while in the act of selling postage stamps.

The burglars had stolen a quantity of stamps, and when arrested the two suspects had the same number of stamps of different denomination. Evidence showed that the men had been in Circleville the previous night and, while no jewelry was found, a missing suitcase is supposed to contain the jewelry.

Both men were locked up under suspicion, giving their names as Frank Williams and Humphrey Orao.

primary scheme in that state regardless of the action of the national committee. Such action would, of course, have no binding effect either in law or under party rule, but it might have a certain moral effect, which seems to be what Mr. Taft's enemies are seeking.

The proposition for a presidential preference primary was submitted to the committee by Senator Borah in the form of a minority report, which was voted down, 42 to 7, four members being absent. During the debate on the minority report Arthur I. Vorys of Ohio made a few remarks on the subject of primaries, saying:

"No presidential popularity contest can be conducted under the present Ohio laws. This plan is neither feasible nor desirable in Ohio. The general assembly can meet and give us legal right to elect delegates-at-large at primaries, and if Ohio wants the primary it can first provide it by law."

When Borah's report was defeated the national committee adopted the majority report, which was merely a formal call for the convention in the same form as issued four years ago. It provides that primaries may be held in states where they are provided by law, but makes no reference to them otherwise.

The selection of Harry S. New of Indianapolis as chairman of the important committee on arrangements for the convention was in accordance with the wishes of President Taft. The committee will name the temporary officers for the convention among other duties.

By a rising vote, the resignation of Postmaster General Hitchcock as chairman of the national committee was accepted and former Governor Hill of Maine was elected without opposition to fill the unexpired term.

Episcopalians Anticipate Building Church

Never has there been a time in Washington's history when prospects for the establishing of an Episcopalian church upon a permanent basis in our city loomed up brighter.

While the number of Episcopalian who have been found every Sunday afternoon for some weeks congregated for service in the Imperial Hotel, is not large, it represents a zeal and earnestness that is pregnant for possibilities, and a purposefulness that is not to be daunted.

At the last service it was decided to appoint a committee to investigate sites for building purposes, with a view to securing at once a desirable location for building, and as soon as it is possible proceed with the erection of a church edifice.

The committee is composed of Mrs. R. C. Hunt, Mrs. M. S. Daugherty, Miss Anna Bell, Messrs. George Hitchcock and W. A. Tharp.

Mr. R. C. Hunt made a most generous donation as a nucleus for the raising of a fund for the purchase of the lot and there are other donations in prospect.

George Miller, residing near Waynesville, in Clinton county, has been arrested for setting fire to the barn of Mrs. Mary Satterthwaite.

The Martinsville bloodhounds were sent for and tracked the man from the barn to his home. It later developed that Miller and the Satterthwaite family had had trouble, the daughter having sued Miller for slander.

Finally Submitted Jury Not Yet Agreed

In the trial of the Allen vs. Smith $20,000 damage case, Mr. John Logan, of counsel for the defendant, concluded his argument on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. An adjournment was taken then until Wednesday morning. Immediately upon the convening of court Wednesday morning, Judge Curtin delivered his charge to the jury. The reading of the charge occupied about 45 minutes and it was 10:20 o'clock Wednesday morning when Judge Curtin pronounced the closing words of his charge, "You will now take the case" and the hard-fought legal battle extending over more than two weeks of actual trial was finally submitted to the jury for its determination.

The trial has attracted a considerable amount of attention, due in part to the prominence of the parties, the large sum involved, the fact that it is the first suit of the kind to be tried in local courts and the array of able counsel engaged.

An unusually large number of spectators have attended the trial on nearly every day.

At four o'clock this evening the jury had not yet arrived at a verdict.

Mrs. R. D. McClure Seriously Injured In Pittsburg

Mr. R. D. McClure received word from Pittsburg, Pa., where his wife has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. A. McGuire, Tuesday night that Mrs. McClure had met with a severe fall on the sidewalk which has been a glare of ice for several days. In the fall Mrs. McClure sustained a sprained ankle, wrenched to the extent of tearing the ligaments so severely that it was found necessary to put the ankle in a cast, and painful bruises. The attending physician says that there is no possibility of the injured woman being able to return home in less than three weeks and it may be much longer.

Mrs. McGuire, who was with her sister, also fell, and is in a crippled condition, although her injuries are not as severe as those of Mrs. McClure.

Washington friends sincerely regret to learn of this serious accident, marring the Christmas season, as well as causing much suffering and inconvenience.

New Mayor's Office Located in McLellan Room

Mayor's Office, Council Chambers and Police Headquarters Will Occupy Building on Corner of Market and Fayette Sts. Appointees Will be Announced Sometime Next Week.

WE STUDY

Our business. We aim to make it the best. We desire to serve well both borrowers and depositors. We are economical in our management. Applications for loans are looked after promptly and when good, closed quickly. Five per cent. interest is mailed promptly to our depositors and they are pleased. Assets over $5,000,000. The Buckeye State Building and Loan Company, Rankin Building, 22 West Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio. Call and investigate.

With the advent of the New Year and the ushering in of the new municipal administration, the Mayor's office and council chambers will be transferred from their present locations to the Os McLellan building on the corner of Market and Fayette streets, just vacated by the C. R. Parish Furniture Company.
With negotiations for the rental of the McLellan building practically completed, the interior of the structure is to be remodeled and fitted up for the reception of the fixtures belonging to the city and used in the Mayor's office, Police headquarters and the city council chambers.
It is also proposed that one of the rear rooms of the McLellan building be fitted up and one of the steel cages formerly used in the old city building cell for the confinement of prisoners, be installed for the reception of prisoners. This cage has been adorning the city's vacant lot on Market street since the old engine house was torn down.
The proximity of the new Mayor's office to the county jail, where some of the prisoners will probably be kept makes it a desirable location. What the rental will be was not ascertained.
Incoming Mayor Harve W. Smith will probably have his appointees to the various offices, ready to announce next week and has part of the appointments made at the present time. Much interest attaches to the new appointees. Mr. Smith states that he has not decided upon who will fill the office of Chief of Police and one of the other principal appointive officers.

More Double Track On C. A. & C.

The C. A. & C. will soon have a steam shovel busy cutting away the embankment near the cemetery in Wilmington, so that a long switch may be laid through that city.
This move is another one which indicates that a greatly increased freight traffic is contemplated when the C. A. & C. becomes the property of the Pennsylvania lines after January 1.
The road is well equipped for handling freight in this city, and so far as known, no changes will be made in the tracks at this point.

CHAPTER XII.

In the House of the Lord. It was a beautiful Sunday morning. The pulpit of the Methodist Church was not occupied by its regular pastor, Brother Johnson. Instead, a traveling minister, collecting funds for a church orphanage in Memphis, was the speaker for the day. Miss Minerva rarely missed a service in her own church. She was always on hand at the Love Feast and the Missionary Rally and gave liberally of her means to every cause. She was sitting in her own pew between Billy and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Garner having remained at home. Across the aisle from her sat Frances Black, between her father and mother; two pews in front of her were Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, with Lina on the outside next the aisle. The good Major was there, too; it was the only place he could depend upon for seeing Miss Minerva. The preacher, after an earnest and eloquent discourse from the text, "He will remember the fatherless," closed the big Bible with a bang calculated to wake up any who might be sleeping. He came down from the pulpit and stood close to his hearers as he made his last pathetic appeal. "My own heart," said he, "goes out to every orphan child, for in the yellow fever epidemic of '78, when but two years old, I lost both father and mother. If there are any little orphan children here today, I should be glad if they would come up to the front and shake hands with me."

Now Miss Minerva always faithfully responded to every proposal made by a preacher; it was a part of her religious conviction. At revivals she was ever a shining, if solemn and austere, light. When a minister called for all those who wanted to go to Heaven to rise, she was always the first one on her feet. If he asked to see the raised hands of those who were members of the church at the tender age of ten years, Miss Minerva's thin, long arm gave a prompt response. Once when a celebrated evangelist was holding a big protracted meeting under canvas in the town and had asked those who had read the book of Hezekiah in the Bible to stand up, Miss Minerva on one side of the big tent and her devoted lover on the other side were among the few who had risen to their feet. She had read the good book from cover to cover, from Genesis to Revelation over and over so she thought she had read Hezekiah a score of times.

So now, when the preacher called for little orphans to come forward, she leaned down and whispered to her nephew, "Go up to the front, William, and shake hands with the nice kind preacher."

"What for?" he asked. "I don't want to go up there; everybody here'll look right at me."

"Are there no little orphans here?"

the minister was saying. "I want to shake the hand of any little child who has had the misfortune to lose its parents."

"Go on, William," commanded his aunt. "Go shake hands with the preacher."

The little boy again demurred but, Miss Minerva insisting, he obediently slipped by her and by his chum. Walking gracefully and jauntily up the aisle to the spot where the lecturer was standing by a broad table, he held out his slim, little hand.

Jimmy looked at these proceedings of Billy's in astonishment, not comprehending at all. He was rather indignant that the older boy had not confided in him and invited his participation.

But Jimmy was not the one to sit calmly by and be ignored when there was anything doing, so he slid awkwardly from the bench before Miss Minerva knew what he was up to. Signaling Frances to follow, he swaggered pompously behind Billy and he, too, held out a short, fat hand to the minister.

The speaker smiled benignly down upon them; lifting them up in his arms he stood the little boys upon the table. He thought the touching sight of these innocent and tender little orphans would empty the pockets of the audience. Billy turned red with embarrassment at his conspicuous position, while Jimmy grinned happily at the amused congregation. Horrified Miss Minerva half rose to her feet, but decided to remain where she was. She was a timid woman and did not know what course she ought to pursue. Besides, she had just caught the Major's smile.

"And how long have you been an orphan?" the preacher was asking of Billy.

"Ever since me an' Wilkes Booth Lincoln's born," sweetly responded the child.

"I 'bout the orphanest boy they is," volunteered Jimmy.

Frances, responding to the latter's invitation, had crawled over her father's legs before he realized what was happening. She, too, went smiling down the aisle, her stiff white dress standing straight up in the back like a strutting gobbler's tail. She grabbed hold of the man's hand, and was promptly lifted to the table beside the other "orphans." Tears stood in the good preacher's eyes as he turned to the titling audience and said in a pathetic voice, "Think of it, my friends, this beautiful little girl has no mother."

Poor Mrs. Black! A hundred pairs of eyes sought her pew and focused themselves upon the pretty young woman sitting there, red, angry, and shamefaced. Mr. Black was visibly amused and could hardly keep from laughing aloud.

As Frances passed by the Hamiltons' pew in her promenade down the aisle, Mrs. Hamilton leaned across her husband and made an attempt to clutch Lina; but she was too late; already that dignified little "orphan" was gliding with stately, conscious tread to join the others. This was too much for the audience. A few boys laughed out and for the first time the preacher's suspicions were aroused. As he clasped Lina's slender, graceful little hand he asked:

"And you have no father or mother, little girl?"

"Yes, I have, too," she angrily retorted. "My father and mother are sitting right there," and she pointed a slim forefinger to her crimson, embarrassed parents.

"Every Little Olive Tablet Has a Movement All Its Own"

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent. of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Portsmouth, Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities.

Raids Led by Dentist.

The raids were conducted by Dr. H. R. Emery, a dentist of this city, assisted by Mrs. Emery, their daughter Estella, Miss Clara Steffe, George Gardner and Marshal George Carrico of Kirkersville. At the Schaller place there was no resistance and the sleuths were presented with bottled goods, which they retained as evidence.

At the Henry place resistance was made and Mrs. Emery drew a pair of dentist's forceps from her muff, many mistaking it for a revolver.

From the Henry place the raiders went to the Bismarck, which, because of the deaths of an uncle and aunt of the owner, had been closed. An attempt was made to force the doors, but this failing, Dr. Emery lifted his daughter on his shoulder and she broke out the transom with a hammer. The transom was removed and a ladder obtained, and Dr. Emery crawled through the opening into the room.

By this time a crowd, which had followed the raiders out of curiosity, and which from a few persons had grown to the proportions of more than 500, collected around the place and chafed the raiders. No actual violence was attempted, but the crowd was not in a very pleasant mood and the police were asked for protection.

GRAFT EVIDENCE TURNED UP BY JURY IN DARKE PROBE

Fifty-Four Indictments Returned in Darke County.

Greenville, O. Dec. 13.—The special grand jury impaneled to investigate charges of graft and crookedness on the part of former county officials and employees returned 54 indictments, only four of which were kept secret. W. H. Townsend, N. D. Sipple and D. F. Anspaugh, former commissioners, were indicted on charges of aiding and abetting the certification of false claims and for misconduct in office.

Perry L. Turner, a janitor, was indicted on charges of making false vouchers and for forgery; William T. Hayes, former janitor; E. K. Lott, former commissioners' clerk, and Edward Fry, H. J. Fry, J. R. Holland, John W. Lewis, E. E. Studebaker and R. M. Stocker, contractors, were indicted on charges of presenting false vouchers.

It is believed that secret indictments are against supply houses and firms that in the past several years have been selling supplies to the county. The investigation was brought about by persistent rumors circulated during the 1910 campaign by Republicans, who made charges of crookedness openly.

RIOTERS BREAK UP PEACE MEETING

Andrew Carnegie Unable to Deliver Arbitration Speech.

New York, Dec. 13.—An organized demonstration by disaffected Irishmen and Germans stopped the mass meeting held in Carnegie hall under the auspices of the citizens' national committee in support of the ratification of the general arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France, routed Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, who took the field against them in a vain attempt to restore order, and finally shut down the meeting with Andrew Carnegie and Frederick R. Coudert yet to be heard on the subject of the treaties.

It was the wildest time Carnegie hall has known in a long time, and the man whose name the hall bears was sitting in the front row, hearing the peace policies of which he is so ardent an advocate hooted by a gallery full of rioters, with more or less assistance from outposts in other parts of the house.

WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO, WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 13, 1911

Ten Cents a Week

PRIMARY PLAN
KNOCKED OUT
BY LEADERSRepublicans Pick Chicago as National Convention City.

VOTING DATE IS JUNE 18

Mr. I. Verna Explains Why Presidential Preference Proposition Is Not Feasible in Ohio — Brown Issues Another Statement—John F. Hill of Maine Succumbs Mitchell on Campaign Manager—Indianapolis Names Taft and Is Called by New.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Chicago had very little opposition in the race for the 1912 national convention of the Republican party and won hands down. June 18 was selected as the voting date by the Republican national committee, which had hardly decided these questions and concluded other business with a fair show of harmony, when E. L. Lee, chairman of the Republican state committee of Indiana, and ex-Senator Beveridge's lieutenant, issued this formal statement:

"Mr. Taft can not carry Indiana. He is the Republican nominee, our fight is not before a gun is fired. As one of his original friends who, inspired for him night and day, I have been driven to this knowledge with extreme reluctance. There is not the slightest chance to carry Indiana for Mr. Taft."

So far as Mr. Lee himself is concerned, this statement is not received with any great degree of seriousness in Washington. The contention that Mr. Lee has a private ax to grind.

New Takes Other View

Harry New, national Republican committeeman from Indiana, said he heard of the Lee statement: "I know several days ago that Lee was coming to Washington to make this statement. I told the president that he was going to make the statement. I could, without much trouble, tell you what is behind the statement. It also fixes the date on which he experienced a change of sentiment. I disagree absolutely with his propositions in regard to President Taft's renomination. I believe President Taft is the strongest man the party can nominate, and I do not believe the Republicans of Indiana will be affected by Mr. Lee's pessimistic view."

On the heels of the Lee statement came another formal statement from Mr. Brown, chairman of the Ohio Republican state committee. Mr. Brown declared a few days ago that Taft was the choice of the Ohio Republicans and he had been urging several days that the Republican national committee provide a way for the holding of a Republican primary for the selection of Ohio's delegates-at-large to the national convention. It was the failure of the national committee to meet his wish in this respect that led Mr. Brown to issue another statement. He intimates that the failure of the committee in this respect will result in a more determined fight in Ohio.

is the Brown statement:

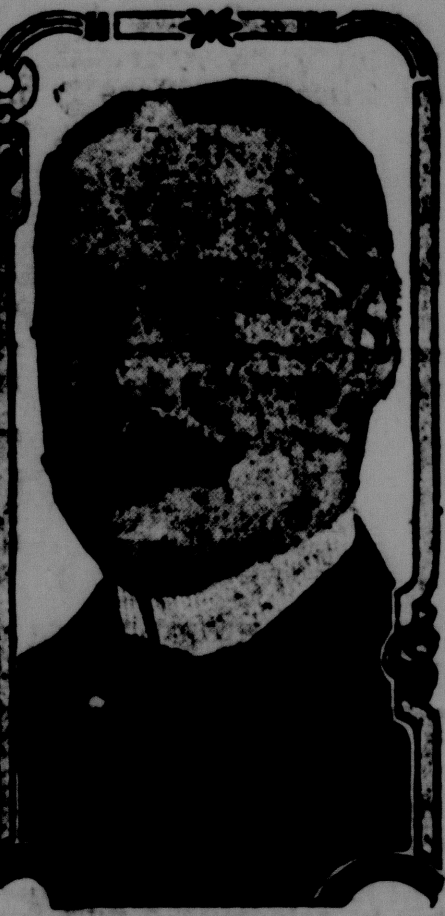

Brown's Latest Statement.

"The Republicans who are interested in party success at the national convention are more concerned about the nomination than about nominations. They regret that the national committee has not been fit to deny to state committees the opportunity to provide for the selection of delegates-at-large. Undoubtedly 43 out of 48 national delegates will be elected at district primaries under the plan of Ohio, as it now stands. If delegates-at-large could also be elected by direct vote, and I believe that a method of so doing, properly safeguarded, could be worked out, the state convention to nominate a state ticket could be held at the national convention, and the event the presidential election would be eliminated from the deliberations of the state convention, and the delegates would be able to select the state ticket."

AMERICAN

DECLARES
ITSELFTakes No Chances on Future
Ticket Scandals.

New York, Dec. 13.—American league baseball club owners before adjourning the annual fall meeting at the hotel Astor, adopted resolutions offered by Frank J. Farrell of the New York club, that may lead to a war with the National league. The resolution, which was prompted by the world's series ticket scandal, reads this way:

"Resolved, That the American league will continue to exercise its privileges and observe its obligations under the national agreement, but will decline to have further official intercourse with the National league except so far as may be requisite for the safeguarding of its territorial and player rights."

"Be it further resolved, That the American league will not be represented in another series for the championship of the world or in any other interleague event unless accorded sole charge of the sale of tickets to games played on its own grounds under an arrangement and with the understanding that it shall not assume responsibility for the conduct of the business department of games at the park of the other contesting club."

Cleveland was represented by C. W. Somers. A resolution praising the Athletic club for its victory in the world's series was passed, and the veteran umpire, Jack Shortland, received a gold medal and was placed on the pension list at $1,300 a year. The league then passed the "war resolution" and adjourned until February.

The Cincinnati club has signed the veteran National league umpire, Hank O'Day, to manage the Reds next year. O'Day has been an umpire for nearly 30 years. He was one of the "clean" pitchers who played with the world's championship in 1905. His manager, which was announced to Hank O'Day, was a surprise. O'Day was at the World and received many congratulations.

Lawn Checkers, a Game For The Benefit of the Spectators

CHECKER enthusiasts will have an opportunity to watch their favorite game played in a novel style when "lawn checkers" will be demonstrated at a public tournament in New York. The game is played on a large canvas, twenty-four feet square, which is stretched upon turf or the floor of a large hall. Square holes are cut in the canvas in such a manner as to give the usual checkerboard effect on a grand scale. The pieces, which are made of paper mache, are correspondingly large and are moved by means of poles with hooks at one end. The advantage of the new game, according to its inventor, is that a match may be watched by a large crowd of spectators instead of by the dozen or so who can observe the moves of the players who use an ordinary board. The new method may be and is adapted to the use of chess players as well.

Police were able to handle the situation, however, and order was quickly restored.

To add to the confusion an excited man, who feared a serious outbreak, telephoned to Governor Harmon that a serious riot was imminent and implored the governor to send troops. Delhi, India, Dec. 13.—Before a quarter of a million people and amid scenes of grandeur that surpassed anything in modern history, King George V. and his consort, Queen Mary, were formally proclaimed emperor and empress of India.

The crowning was followed by an act of generosity on the king-emperor's part, of which a slight hint had already been given. The viceroy proclaimed that the king-emperor was to donate a large sum of money to promote popular education and that further handsome gifts would be made.

Thousands of soldiers and government secret service men guarded every approach to the royal encampment, while a hundred thousand of the king's native and English troops surrounded the tents of King George and his suite to guard against a repetition of the mysterious fires that have broken out from time to time in the Durbar encampment.

FITZGERALD IS MUCH PUT OUT

New York Democrat Takes Colleagues to Task For Tackling $75,000,000 Appropriation to Undo Sam's Already Heavy Burden and Says All Hope of Keeping Economy Pledge Has Vanished—Eight Republicans Cast Negative Votes.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The house passed the Sherwood dollar-a-day pension bill, which will add about $75,000,000 a year to the expenditures of the government, the final vote being 229 to 92, eight of those registered in the negative being Republicans. Speaker Clark voted for the bill; Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee and Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee against it.

The feature of the closing debate on the measure was Mr. Fitzgerald's speech arraigning his colleagues for their favorable attitude toward the bill, and declaring that with its passage went their last hope of effecting reforms and economies in appropriations for which they have gone on record.

The Republicans who voted against the Sherwood bill were Gardner, Miller and McCall of Massachusetts, Hill of Connecticut, Kent of California, McCreary of Pennsylvania, Payne of New York and Utter of Rhode Island.

The rates in the Sherwood bill are as follows: For service of 90 days up to six months, $15 a month; from six months to nine months, $20 a month; nine months to a year, $25 a month; for one year or more, $30 a month.

RESCUERS' BELIEF

Rescuers Believe Two of Entombed Men Have Lost Reason.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 13.—The sum total of bodies removed from Cross mountain mine is 32, not counting the five men removed alive. The day was practically without results so far as the finding of more bodies was concerned, but members of the rescuing party are confident that there are two miners with reason, dethroned wandering about the dark passageways of the wrecked mine. Several times their maniacal screams have been heard, and they seemed to flee from the rescuing party. The two men are believed to be John Duff and John Smith, who became separated from William Henderson's party sometime Sunday.

Guard Charles Jackson Proves Equal to Occasion

And Frustrate Attempted Escape From the Penitentiary. Recognized as an Alert Guard He Sustains His Reputation in an Emergency.

Just one minute intervened to head off plans of three prisoners who attempted to make their escape from the Ohio penitentiary during the change of guards at 5:25 Tuesday afternoon and caused their defeat at the hands of Guard Charles Jackson of this city, who, upon their refusal to comply with his order to halt, discharged his revolver.

Two of the men, who are employed in the dining room, which is near the east wall, succeeded in making their way back to the building before their identity was established. The third, Harry Kessler, serving 20 years from Trumbull county for safe blowing, ran into the arms of Guard Ringle, who was just going to the relief of Jackson.

The men managed to make their way from the dining room without the guards on duty noticing their disappearance, as it is difficult to keep all of the men employed in the hall under close observation. A mistake in their calculation of time brought the men to the wall just one minute before the change of guards was made. But for their haste, their escape might have been effected.

Jackson, who was awaiting the appearance of Ringle, noticed the three men skulking along in the shadow of the wall. Unheeding his cries to halt, the men broke into a run and dashed for the north end.

The fusillade of shots from Jackson's revolver brought the escaping men to a halt. Turning, they ran back in the direction of the dining room with the intention of losing themselves among the many men at work there.

Two succeeded, but Kessler fell into the arms of Ringle just as the latter came around the corner of the building. A search is being conducted for a rope ladder which the men are supposed to have hidden near the wall. Kessler is serving his fifth sentence at the penitentiary and is considered dangerous.

Charles Jackson has been recognized as one of the most capable and alert guards at the big prison and Tuesday evening's emergency proved that his excellent reputation for efficiency is wholly justified.

Jury Chosen To Try Gilsdorf

The work of impaneling a jury to try Charles Gilsdorf was finished Tuesday, the last man accepted being Henry Hatfield of Franklin township, Ross county, who had not heard of the murder and had not even heard that Gilsdorf was tried for insanity.

The jury then went to the scene of the murder, and viewed the surroundings. The work of taking evidence was then commenced.

Want "Little Bristle" To Be in the Front Row

President F. W. Herbst, of Columbus Chamber of Commerce Here Boasting Ohio Centennial--Wants Float From Fayette.

Mr. F. W. Herbst, president of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, was in this city Wednesday calling upon many prominent men and county and city officials in the interests of the Ohio-Columbus Centennial celebration which will be held ten days, beginning August 26, 1912, in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of Ohio's capitol in Columbus.

It is the desire of the Chamber of Commerce that every county be represented in an appropriate manner, and it is for this reason that he visits Fayette county. A large meeting of business men will probably be held within a short time and Mr. Herbst will make an address on the coming centennial.

The commissioners appointed by Governor Harmon to represent Fayette county at the centennial, are Messrs. John M. Jones, of Bloomingburg, and County Commissioner Edwin Weaver. Two women from the county will have charge of the historical loan exhibit from this county.

The main object of Mr. Herbst's visit was to arouse an interest in the centennial among the people of Fayette county. In view of raising a fund sufficient to pay for a float to represent this county in the historic pageant which will be one of the chief features of the celebration. This pageant will be composed of electric floats built on the street cars, typifying the various incidents in the history of the state and different counties. The pageant will be called "The Story of the State," and it is expected that it will be the most magnificent affair ever attempted in the county.

Not only Ohio, but all the central states will be interested in the celebration. President Taft has already accepted an invitation to be present and Governor Harmon has formally endorsed the project.

All of the eighty-eight counties in the state will be invited to take part in the celebration. Already about twenty of them have, through their centennial organizations, signified their intention of doing so.

The amount to be raised is about $500, which will be used in properly representing the county in the big centennial.

TO THE PUBLIC.

If cough syrups would cure coughs every time, it would not be necessary for us to print this information, but there are so many cases of chronic bronchitis in town that have hung on for months and years, we feel that we must tell what we know about it. It is a positive fact that the only right way to treat a cough is to use a remedy that acts on the blood, such as Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil.

This makes the blood rich and pure so it can heal and strengthen the inflamed bronchial tubes. Its taste is so pleasant that even children like it. Mrs. Olivia Parham, East Durham, N. C., says "I used Vinol for a cough which had lasted two years and it gave me perfect satisfaction. I am also giving it to a delicate child to strengthen her. She will not take any other medicine, but Vinol is so pleasant she cries for it and it is benefitting her very much."

Remember if Vinol does not help you it costs you nothing. Blackmer & Tanquary.

Waives Examination Bond Is Given

YOUNG FULTON CHARGED WITH CUTTING WITH INTENT TO KILL; MUST ANSWER TO COURT

Charles Fulton, the young farmer of near Waterloo, against whom Napoleon B. Fulton filed an affidavit, charging that he assaulted him with a corn knife and cut him with intent to kill, was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Constable Oatneal and a deputy.

Fulton was at his home when arrested, and offered no resistance. He notified his father, Benton Fulton who accompanied him to this city for the preliminary hearing. The men secured Attorney Humphrey Jones as their legal adviser, and through him Fulton waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury under $1000 bond, upon the charge of cutting with intent to kill.

The bond was furnished by the young man's father, who owns a farm in the Waterloo neighborhood, and who is a brother of the man who was cut. Owing to the seriousness of N. B. Fulton's injuries, blood poisoning is liable to develop. Chas. Fulton, when asked the nature of the trouble between himself and his uncle, stated that he had forbidden his uncle to set foot in his yard, and that when he disregarded the warning, he put him out. Before he could make a further statement his father hastily summoned him away.

The trouble seems to have been over a step-daughter of N. B. Fulton, who was at the Chas. Fulton residence. If the case gets into the courts some interesting features will probably develop.

GOING TO TRY IT.

Out in the "new" northwest country they are certainly in for trying every sort of an experiment, especially those which have to do with municipal affairs. Everything is tried for which it is promised or which promises in itself a possibility of better conditions.

Now they are going to give the municipal saloon scheme a thorough work out so as to test by actual experience its limit of capacity for good or evil and set at rest the mooted question as to whether it is better than the private saloon, and if so, can the municipality without too great a loss, engage in the saloon business.

In this section which is "back east" to the residents of that big country, while we are not inclined to look favorably upon the enterprise, we will look with interest for the outcome of the test.

Ministers of nearly every denomination have assured the mayor and the council of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, of their support in a plan to establish a municipal saloon in that city, instead of issuing individual licenses. Many residents of the city also are in favor of giving the innovation a full trial.

Some of the citizens object to the municipal saloon on the ground that it "would put the saloon in politics." In the opinion of the others, exactly the reverse is true. It is claimed that the many who have had experience and have noted the political activity of the liquor interests on all matters which they consider would even remotely affect their interest, are willing to concede the truth of the reverse.

Nominally, the public officials are supposed to regulate the liquor traffic, but in reality are often regulated by it is the claim. Other objections are that the city would lose money because of grafting politicians and dishonest employees. There is no doubt that some loss would occur through these agencies, even as it occurs in private business, but it is argued that a systematic check and balance system could be instituted and surety bonds required of all who handle money. The working out of the system is purely a matter of detail.

There is nothing in the constitution or statutes of Idaho that forbids a city engaging in a mercantile business; yet there is no law specifically authorizing a city so to engage, so in all probability, should the city of Coeur d'Alene go ahead with the proposed municipal saloon whether it would be permitted to proceed is a matter for the courts of the state to decide.

End of Trusts Will Come

Obey
Sherman
Law
Closer

By JOHN WANAMAKER,
Merchant

NOW, WITH A LITTLE PATIENCE, ALL THE GREAT TRUSTS WILL CONFORM TO LAWS ON THE STATUTE BOOK AS UNDERSTOOD AND INTERPRETED BY THE HIGHEST TRIBUNAL OF THE UNITED STATES.

I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT MR. MORGAN, MR. FRICK OR MR. GARY WILL CARE TO DEFEND ANY ORGANIZATION WHICH BY INADVERTENCE EXPRESSES IN ITS ORGANIZATION ANYTHING CONTRARY TO HIS LIFELONG CHARACTER OF UPRIGHTNESS.

The Sherman act against trusts came along because trusts existed and were multiplying.

Our busy, unsuspecting people were not aware of the power and hardships possible to monopolistic corporations, and the continual advance in the cost of living, raiment and all building improvements AWAKENED THE PEOPLE.

A day had come when the people all over the United States would get behind their senators and representatives, judges, writers and the newspaper world generally and demand relief. That day had to come or anarchy would have been produced.

THAT DAY OF RELIEF HAS ARRIVED.

It is written, "AS A MAN THINKETH, SO IS HE," and so are his companies and businesses. I am sure the day is at hand when any man or set of men doing business contrary to existing statutes, when such is proved to them without animosity or unnecessary haste or needless expenses, will set their houses in proper order. For this reason I believe we are on the eve of a BETTER, SAFER, STEADIER, PROSPEROUS BUSINESS DECADE.

ARMED CAN SQUARE ITSELF TO WAR WHEN IT HAS TO BE AND YET MORE EASILY TO PERMANENT PEACE. SO IT CAN AND WILL SQUARE ITSELF IN THE REGULATION OF TRUSTS, MONOPOLIES AND STOCK MARKETS.

"THE ISLE OF PALMS"

He tipped the barber for his shave,
He tipped the bootblack, too;
He tipped the dairy girl at lunch
To what she thought her due;
He tipped the hallboy at the flat
To keep the lad's esteem.
And then he tipped the janitor
To turn on some more steam.

He tipped the taxi driver when
He took her to a show;
Then waiters, hat boy and the like
Took slices of his dough;
The waiter tipped the oyster man,
The carver, too, got his;
The omnibus man received a dime
For tending to his biz.

The oyster man tipped well the chef
Who put him on the job;
Head waiter got tips from his staff
For privilege to rob.
And so it goes along the line,
For it is up to date
Here on the "Isle of Palms" to tip
From morn till evening late.

"BEST ON EARTH"

This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracey, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure." Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops coughs and cures colds. Do not accept any substitute. Blackmer & Tanqueray.

Finally Submitted Jury Not Yet Agreed

In the trial of the Allen vs. Smith $20,000 damage case, Mr. John Logan, of counsel for the defendant, concluded his argument on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. An adjournment was taken then until Wednesday morning. Immediately upon the opening of court Wednesday morning, Judge Curtin delivered his charge to the jury. The reading of the charge occupied about 45 minutes and it was 10:20 o'clock Wednesday morning when Judge Curtin pronounced the closing words of his charge. "You will now take the case" and the hard-fought legal battle extending over more than two weeks of actual trial was finally submitted to the jury for its determination.

The trial has attracted a considerable amount of attention, due in part to the prominence of the parties, the large sum involved, the fact that it is the first suit of the kind to be tried in local courts and the array of able counsel engaged.

An unusually large number of spectators have attended the trial on nearly every day.

At four o'clock this evening the jury had not yet arrived at a verdict.

Mrs. R. D. McClure Seriously Injured In Pittsburg

Mr. R. D. McClure received word from Pittsburg, Pa., where his wife has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. A. McGuire, Tuesday night that Mrs. McClure had met with a severe fall on the sidewalk which has been a glare of ice for several days. In the fall Mrs. McClure sustained a sprained ankle, wrenched to the extent of tearing the ligaments so severely that it was found necessary to put the ankle in a cast, and painful bruises. The attending physician says that there is no possibility of the injured woman being able to return home in less than three weeks and it may be much longer.

Mrs. McGuire, who was with her sister, also fell, and is in a crippled condition, although her injuries are not as severe as those of Mrs. McClure.

Washington friends sincerely regret to learn of this serious accident, marring the Christmas season, as well as causing much suffering and inconvenience.

Plates Now on Display in Our Show Window

the minister was saying. "I want to shake the hand of any little child who has had the misfortune to lose its parents."

"Go on, William," commanded his aunt. "Go shake hands with the preacher."

The little boy again demurred but, Miss Minerva insisting, he obediently slipped by her and by his chum. Walking gracefully and jauntily up the aisle to the spot where the lecturer was standing by a broad table, he held out his slim, little hand.

Jimmy looked at these proceedings of Billy's in astonishment, not comprehending at all. He was rather indignant that the older boy had not confided in him and invited his participation.

But Jimmy was not the one to sit calmly by and be ignored when there was anything doing, so he slid awkwardly from the bench before Miss Minerva knew what he was up to. Signaling Frances to follow, he swaggered pompously behind Billy and he, too, held out a short, fat hand to the minister.

The speaker smiled benignly down upon them; lifting them up in his arms he stood the little boys upon the table. He thought the touching sight of these innocent and tender little orphans would empty the pockets of the audience. Billy turned red with embarrassment at his conspicuous position, while Jimmy grinned happily at the amused congregation. Horrified Miss Minerva half rose to her feet, but decided to remain where she was. She was a timid woman and did not know what course she ought to pursue. Besides, she had just caught the Major's smile.

"And how long have you been an orphan?" the preacher was asking of Billy.

"Ever since me an' Wilkes Booth Lincoln's born," sweetly responded the child.

"I 'bout the orphanest boy they is," volunteered Jimmy. Frances, responding to the latter's invitation, had crawled over her father's legs before he realized what was happening. She, too, went smiling down the aisle, her stiff white dress standing straight up in the back like a strutting gobbler's tail. She grabbed hold of the man's hand, and was promptly lifted to the table beside the other "orphans." Tears stood in the good preacher's eyes as he turned to the tittering audience and said in a pathetic voice, "Think of it, my friends, this beautiful little girl has no mother."

Poor Mrs. Black! A hundred pairs of eyes sought her pew and focused themselves upon the pretty young woman sitting there, red, angry, and shamefaced. Mr. Black was visibly amused and could hardly keep from laughing aloud.

As Frances passed by the Hamiltons' pew in her promenade down the aisle, Mrs. Hamilton leaned across her husband and made an attempt to clutch Lina; but she was too late; already that dignified little "orphan" was gliding with stately, conscious tread to join the others. This was too much for the audience. A few boys laughed out and for the first time the preacher's suspicions were aroused. As he clasped Lina's slender, graceful little hand he asked:

"And you have no father or mother, little girl?"

"Yes, I have, too," she angrily retorted. "My father and mother are sitting right there," and she pointed a slim forefinger to her crimson, embarrassed parents.

"Every Little Olive Tablet Has a Movement All Its Own"

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent. of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Portsmouth, Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities.

10c and 25c per box.
The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio. Dr. F. M. Edwards, Pres.

Mr. Brothers and the Bismarck case.

Raided Last by Dentist.
The raids were conducted by Dr. H. R. Emery, a dentist of this city, assisted by Mrs. Emery, their daughter Estella, Miss Clara Stoffe, George Gardner and Marshal George Carmon of Kirkererville. At the Schaller place there was no resistance and the sluths were presented with bottled goods, which they retained as evidence.

At the Henry place resistance was made and Mrs. Emery drew a pair of dentist's forceps from her muff, many mistaking it for a revolver.

From the Henry place the raiders went to the Bismarck, which, because of the deaths of an uncle and aunt of the owner, had been closed. An attempt was made to force the doors, but this failing, Dr. Emery lifted his daughter on his shoulder and she broke out the transom with a hammer. The transom was removed and a ladder obtained, and Dr. Emery crawled through the opening into the room.

By this time a crowd, which had followed the raiders out of curiosity, and which from a few persons had grown to the proportions of more than 500, collected around the place and chafed the raiders. No actual violence was attempted, but the crowd was not in a very pleasant mood and the police were asked for protection.

GRAFT EVIDENCE TURNED UP BY JURY IN DARKE PROBE

Fifty-Four Indictments Returned in Darke County.

Greenville, O. Dec. 13.—The special grand jury impaneled to investigate charges of graft and crookedness on the part of former county officials and employees returned 54 indictments, only four of which were kept secret. W. H. Townsend, N. D. Sipple and D. F. Anspaugh, former commissioners, were indicted on charges of aiding and abetting the certification of false claims and for misconduct in office.

Perry L. Turner, a janitor, was indicted on charges of making false vouchers and for forgery; William T. Hayes, former janitor; E. K. Lott, former commissioners' clerk, and Edward Fry, H. J. Fry, J. R. Holland, John W. Lewis, E. E. Studebaker and R. M. Stocker, contractors, were indicted on charges of presenting false vouchers.

It is believed that secret indictments are against supply houses and firms that in the past several years have been selling supplies to the county. The investigation was brought about by persistent rumors circulated during the 1910 campaign by Republicans, who made charges of crookedness openly.

RIOTERS BREAK UP PEACE MEETING

Andrew Carnegie Unable to Deliver Arbitration Speech.

New York, Dec. 13.—An organized demonstration by disaffected Irishmen and Germans stopped the mass meeting held in Carnegie hall under the auspices of the citizens' national committee in support of the ratification of the general arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France, routed Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, who took the field against them in a vain attempt to restore order, and finally shut down the meeting with Andrew Carnegie and Frederick R. Coudert yet to be heard on the subject of the treaties.

It was the wildest time Carnegie hall has known in a long time, and the man whose name the hall bears was sitting in the front row, hearing the peace policies of which he is so ardent an advocate hooted by a gallery full of rioters, with more or less assistance from outposts in other parts of the house.

CHICKENS LEAD TO MURDER

Brothers Quarrel Over Division and Killing Follows.

Wellsville, O., Dec. 13.—Rocco Richi, an Italian, about 25 years old, shot and killed his brother, Christian Richi, 30. The brothers lived together until about a month ago, when Rocco was married. They together owned some chickens. Christian called on his brother to get his share of the chickens or their value in money. A dispute arose and the shooting was the result. Rocco escaped.

CHAPTER XII.

In the House of the Lord.

It was a beautiful Sunday morning. The pulpit of the Methodist Church was not occupied by its regular pastor, Brother Johnson. Instead, a traveling minister, collecting funds for a church orphanage in Memphis, was the speaker for the day. Miss Minerva rarely missed a service in her own church. She was always on hand at the Love Feast and the Missionary Rally and gave liberally of her means to every cause. She was sitting in her own pew between Billy and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Garner having remained at home. Across the aisle from her sat Frances Black, between her father and mother; two pews in front of her were Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, with Lina on the outside next the aisle. The good Major was there, too; it was the only place he could depend upon for seeing Miss Minerva. The preacher, after an earnest and eloquent discourse from the text, "He will remember the fatherless," closed the big Bible with a bang calculated to wake up any who might be sleeping. He came down from the pulpit and stood close to his hearers as he made his last pathetic appeal.

"My own heart," said he, "goes out to every orphan child, for in the yellow fever epidemic of '78, when but two years old, I lost both father and mother. If there are any little orphan children here today, I should be glad if they would come up to the front and shake hands with me."

Now Miss Minerva always faithfully responded to every proposal made by a preacher; it was a part of her religious conviction. At revivals she was ever a shining, if solemn and austere, light. When a minister called for all those who wanted to go to Heaven to rise, she was always the first one on her feet. If he asked to see the raised hands of those who were members of the church at the tender age of ten years, Miss Minerva's thin, long arm gave a prompt response. Once when a celebrated evangelist was holding a big protracted meeting under canvas in the town and had asked those who had read the book of Heciah in the Bible to stand up, Miss Minerva on one side of the big tent and her devoted lover on the other side were among the few who had risen to their feet. She had read the good book from cover to cover, from Genesis to Revelation over and over so she thought she had read Heciah a score of times.

So now, when the preacher called for little orphans to come forward, she leaned down and whispered to her nephew, "Go up to the front, William, and shake hands with the nice kind preacher."

"What for?" he asked. "I don't want to go up there; ev'body here'll look right at me."

"Are there no little orphans here?"
